Round 2: Week 1

Second round begins!

Linwood 1 fail to fire...

Linwood 1 have been involved in some great matches so far in the competition, and it was expected that their match up against first round co-winners Harewood would provide an entertaining contest. However, team leader David Walle was unavailable for the contest, and by contrast, the Harewood line-up was strong as it included Hongyi Li. Harewood would still have to contend with Sang Yong Park, who has provided some of the best matches thus far, however the Linwood team really didn't manage to make an impression throughout the night.

By contrast Yi Sien Lin, Vladimir Ivanov and Hongyi Li all looked very comfortable as they each achieved their two singles wins. They also combined to win both doubles and Harewood were the victors 8 matches to zero.

Daniel Jefferies was the only player for Linwood who was able to push a match into the final game, as he performed well against Li, however Li was too strong in the end.

Linwood 2 show some resistance...

John Cordue and Simon Wallace continued their winning ways, each completing their two singles wins and their doubles. Wallace also combined with Gregg Davey to secure the other doubles.

The night was a tough one for Griffin Buchanan as he faced both Cordue and Wallace, and it was his team mates, Catherine Fogarty and captain Anthony Wilson that were able to show some resistance against the Kirwee challenge. Fogarty and Wilson each attained one singles win, both defeating Kirwee's Gregg Davey. This included the closest match of the night when Fogarty beat Davey 11-5 in the fifth game.

Kirwee 2 too strong...

Jaafar Moussa, Simon Fenwick and Lyndon White were all undefeated in their singles matches against Lincoln Uni. The two doubles matches also went the way of the Kirwee side, with all matches of the night lasting only three games.

Lincoln Uni have played some good table tennis of late, however the task before them was too great, and the night was a short one for these teams.

Jaafar Moussa is certainly a player in form at present, seen not only in his Super Club performances, but in taking out the Marlborough Open Men's Singles also.

This Week!

Internal battles...

Kirwee 1 defend their reputations against the experienced and ever challenging Kirwee 2. Simon Fenwick and Jaafar Moussa will enjoy the challenge of trying to topple the likes of Han Jong Eub, John Cordue and Simon Wallace, who will be just as keen to defend their impressive Super Club statistics.

Linwood 1 and Linwood 2 also have an internal battle for club honours, whilst Lincoln Uni have the tough assignment of trying to tackle Harewood.
