Kirwee 1 take the lead!

Decisive victory to Kirwee 1 in top of table clash...

Not a lot has separated Harewood and Kirwee 1 this season, with these teams finishing first equal in the first round. The first round head to head clash between them was a close affair, in which Kirwee 1 were victorious 5-3. This time around it was again Kirwee 1 who were victorious, and it was in more decisive fashion. John Cordue was again the spear head, and he maintained his unbeaten singles record, beating both Yi Sien Lin and Vladimir Ivanov. Han Jong Eub was also unbeaten, although it took five games for him to defeat Harewood's Yi Sien Lin.

The highlight for Harewood was a good win by Vladimir Ivanov, who defeated Kirwee's Alfred Dele-Pena in five games. This win was even more impressive given that Dele-Pena went on to win the Open Men's Singles in the Canterbury Open a few days later.

The only other match which went Harewood's way was the second doubles, in which Ivanov and Jess Wilson beat John Cordue and Gregg Davey, who subbed in for the second doubles only.

The final result was 6-2 to Kirwee 1.

Linwood 1 continue strong performances...

David Walle and Daniel Jefferies were both unbeaten as their team defeated Lincoln Uni 7-1. Walle won his singles without dropping a game, and maintains his impressive second position on the singles tally for the season, with twelve wins from fourteen singles matches.

There was an impressive highlight for Lincoln Uni however, as Zakary McKellar completed a great win over Sang-Yong Park in four games.

The final result was 7-1 to Linwood 1.

Kirwee 2 stay in contention...

Lyndon White and Simon Fenwick each won both of their singles to lead Kirwee 2 to an emphatic victory over Linwood 2. Both doubles also went the way of the Kirwee side, and Jay Zhu support well with one singles win.

The only win of the night for the Linwood team went to Griffin Buchannan, who defeated Zhu in straight games. Buchannan had earlier had a very close match with Fenwick, only going down 11-8 in the final game.

The final result was 7-1 to Kirwee, meaning that they remain in third place, only one match win behind second placed Harewood. Kirwee 2 will have to finish strong in the last two weeks of the round however, if they wish to push higher, as their final competitions are against Harewood and Linwood 1.

This week!

Some great contests this week, including Linwood 1 taking on Kirwee 1 on table 1. Both teams look strong with David Walle and Sang-Yong Park turning out for Linwood, whilst Han Jong Eub and John Cordue are both in the Kirwee 1 team tonight.

Kirwee 2 are weakened with the omission of the injured Simon Fenwick, whilst their opponents, Harewood, look very strong as usual, especially with the return of Hongyi Li. Dave Samson appears for the first time for Kirwee 2.

Linwood 2 and Lincoln Uni should have a great battle, which includes the return of Aaron Tian and a first Super Club appearance for Daniel Montgomery.
